

Brigadier-general Julien SABÉNÉ

Director of the French Air Force Center for studies, reserve and partnership - Center for air and space strategic studies (CERPA-CESA)

Born on 17 December 1970 in Boulogne-Billancourt (France)
Married and father of 2 children

1990 « Lieutenant Poznanski » entry of the French Air Force Academy
Fighter pilot wings in 1994
Grand total of 2 400 flying hours and 12 combat missions

Career

- 1994 Fighter pilot wings,
Tours air base 705
- 1994 Trainee,
Cazaux air base 120
- 1995 Fighter Pilot Squadron 2/3 « Champagne »,
Nancy air base 133
- 1999 Exchange Pilot
USAF, Cannon AFB
- 2002 Desk officer for the Air Force Staff/Studies and General Plans Department,
Paris
- 2004 Trainee at the War College,
Paris
- 2005 Deputy Commander of fighter squadron 2/2 « Côte d'or »,
Dijon air base 102
- 2006 Deputy Commander then Commander of Nice Mont-Agel
Detection and Control center,
Nice Mont-Agel air base 943
- 2010 French Defense Staff, International Affairs Division,
Paris
- 2012 Base Commander,
Djibouti air base 188
- 2014 Head of the interdepartmental air security mission with the General Defense and National Security Secretary (SGDSN),
Paris
- 2017 Head of the National Air Operations Center, Air Defense and Air Operations,
Lyon - Mont Verdun air base 942
- 2020 Director of the French Air Force Center for studies, reserve and partnership - Center for air and space strategic studies,
Paris

Promoted to

Septembre 1, 2020 Brigadier-general

Major awards and decorations

Officer of the Legion of Honor
Officer of the National Order of Merit
War cross with Silver Star
Cross for Military Valor with Silver Gilt Star
Aviation Medal
Combatant Cross

